

Be Free Group Coach & Captain Training

TWC SMALL GROUPS ·

BE FREE Group Coaching Mission Statement

“My role as a Coach is to love and encourage leaders through Providing Covering, Promoting Growth, and Producing Leaders in their groups.”

Three Responsibilities of a Coach

1. COVERING

- Pray for Leaders/Co-leaders by name DAILY
- Communicate regularly with the leaders & co leaders
- Be available to answer questions
- Help them navigate resources

2. GROWTH

- Meet with the Leaders/Co-leaders together
- Help them “Move One Step”
- Encourage them in their leadership
- Coaches must communicate any issues they are made aware of with a captain
- A captain must be present for any individual meetings with leaders or co-leaders

3. PRODUCE FUTURE LEADERS

- Encourage Leaders/Co-leaders to look for new leaders from their group
- Connect with potential leaders during group visits
- Celebrate testimonies from the group
- Continue to share the vision

Outline of a Group Visit

1. Decide in advance when your group visits will take place
2. Arrive early to participate in pre-group worship and prayer
3. Ask the Leader/Co-leaders how they want you to participate
4. Pray with participants if requested
5. Give constructive feedback to the leaders after the group is finished
6. Don't assume the group should look exactly like your group – Policy vs. Preference **

Be prepared to lead a group in the event, the leader is not present

Recommended Resources

Bishop Van's Books – The People Factor and The I Factor

John Maxwell books on Leadership

(such as Leadership 101; The 360° Leader; 25 Ways to Win with People; Today Matters; Intentional Living)